The Southeast Lay Speaking team attempts to develop trainings that offer participants an opportunity to connect with others for:

- † Fellowship
- † Spiritual Growth &
- † Faith Development

We each “speak” for God through our daily lives and the use of our own unique gifts and talents. After your training if you feel God’s call to fill a pulpit or give a sermon you will have opportunities to do so but you will never be required to do either.

Lay Speaker Training

The Southeast District Lay Speaking Team is excited to present Lay Speaker Training for 2010. The Basic Lay Speaker Training course and two Advanced Lay Speaker Training courses will be offered concurrently.

Participants are to choose one of the courses to attend. Leadership promises to be outstanding for these events.

A $30 registration fee will include all materials and lunch.

While registration in a course is open to any who are interested, participants will not receive credit for the advanced course until they have successfully completed the Basic Course.

The New Basic Lay Speaker Training

Sessions include:

Ministry of the Baptized—led by David Ramsey, Perryville UMC

Leading—led by Ed Reeves, Eastwood Memorial, Caruthersville

Caring—led by David Ramsey

Communicating—led by Ed Reeves

Into the World—led by David Norbury, District Superintendent

Advanced Lay Speaker Training

Lead in Stewardship

led by: Rev. Kendall Waller,
Director of Administrative Services and
Treasurer, Missouri Conference

Purpose of this course:

Course leaders will guide participants to develop a holistic understanding of stewardship. Participants will be asked to reexamine their traditional, or at least comfortable, understanding of stewardship, as it relates not only to their church life but also to their daily life.

Advanced Lay Speaker Training

Lead in Evangelism

led by: Rev. Matt Miofsky,
The Gathering, St. Louis

Purpose of this course:

Evangelism is about our relationship to God and to those we engage daily. This course connects witness with spiritual formation, leading participants to a greater understanding of the importance of evangelism for all involved. It also incorporates Wesleyan insights to a 21st century audience.
